The bourse fee per table includes: one (1) 8 foot covered display table with backup table, chairs, electrical hookup, and two dealer badges. Walk-around badges for non-tabled dealers on Thursday night and early entry during public days are $50.

Dealers may sub-lease space only with the permission of the Bourse Chairman. Any Dealer selling counterfeit or altered coins (unless so marked) will immediately forfeit his space without refund. Please remember that this is a three-day show and attended by some big spenders on Sunday. All dealers are required to have a current North Carolina "Merchant's Certificate of Registration" displayed at their table. If you do not have one you can apply for one at the show.

Feb 2012 Charlotte Coin Club Show: Plug, Dates and Directions

Dear Potential Show Dealer,

November 22, 2011

This is the seventeenth year that I'll be the Bourse Chairman for the Charlotte Coin Club's Annual Show and I'm no less than excited about it. We had a sellout last year (150 tables) in the Metrolina Tradeshow Expo, and expect to be full again this year. The show is run completely by club volunteers and we aspire to have a well-publicized, well-attended and smoothly run event. Our show has been growing steadily for the past 16 years and we appreciate your attendance and support.

We will continue to serve pizza on set-up night (Thursday), provide coffee and doughnuts in the mornings and there is a food service just outside the bourse. We advertise in many local media as well as the national coin publications, plus flyers are distributed and a mailout is sent to all previous raffle entrants (a targeted mailing list of 2700). Krause, Amos and CDN give us handouts for both dealers and public. No admission is charged to the show and we will have Free Parking for all dealers and public. There is a raffle with door prizes and information about joining the coin club. We also have a great YN program so please consider donating some wheat cents, buffalo nickels, etc. Lastly, we have a great partner hotel, the Hilton Garden Inn with room + breakfast starting at $69.95; call direct 704-597-7655 or 877-782-9444 and use the promo code CHC. We look forward to seeing you in Charlotte in February!
